Congratulations to Bien Dinh, Daniel MaGee, Bao Nguyen, David Phan, Antony Phung and Megan Yap for their dedication to train and compete in the Annual National Chemistry Titrations Competition held at Murdoch University on Tuesday night 31st August 2010. Their fine Analytical skills were put to the test once more, as they competed on a National level with fourteen other groups of Year 12 students from around the State. Their outstanding efforts were rewarded with the award of four Gold Medals and two Silver Medals. As they participated in two groups of three, they were ranked in third and tenth position respectively.

This is truly a commendable effort and they should feel very proud of their achievement.

Many thanks to Mr Dale, Mr Renzullo, Mrs Curelic and Mrs Kiss for all their “behind the scenes” assistance in the training and preparation of the students.

Once again, congratulations to these outstanding young Chemists in the making!

In their continuing desire to expose students to all media studied in English, the ENGLISH DEPARTMENT are lucky enough to have Bell Shakespeare at the college on Monday to provide a theatre experience to some of our students. They will be performing ‘Love’s Magic’ for the Year 9 students during period 6. This will facilitate their further understanding of Romeo and Juliet which they study during the year. During Period 4, Upper school Literature students will be watching a performance of adapted scripts of Shakespeare’s darker plays. This will undoubtedly help them with their writing about drama in the exam. Perhaps it will encourage a greater interest in the Arts by these students. This incursion is on the school calendar and is viewed as significant for the students involved. New and varied experiences, to a great degree, facilitate learning. I take this opportunity of commending Mrs Lorraine Daly and the staff of the English Department for the excellent initiatives in this area.

COMMUNITY DINNER DATE CHANGE

NEW DATE MONDAY 15 NOVEMBER

Each year the College hosts a Community Dinner to thank our Parent Group and hardworking volunteers for their tireless efforts to raise funds for various projects in the college. The date is now Monday 15 November. Invitations for the dinner will be sent out later in the year.

SUMMER UNIFORM IN TERM 4—It is necessary for students to check their summer uniform to ensure that it is in good repair for Term 4. Girls’ dresses need to be of the correct length, that is, mid-knee. Year 7 to 9 boys need to check that they have not outgrown their shorts.

The Uniform Shop is open every week, Tuesday and Wednesday from 1.00 to 4.00pm.
On Thursday the 2nd of September, the College held its annual Father’s Day mass. Though it was early in the morning, a promising number of students and their fathers turned up to celebrate this special occasion. The homily by Fr. Richard was very engaging, and reminded fathers of the vital role they play in the lives of their children. Following the mass was a quick breakfast and a chance for a small chat before all headed off to fulfill their daily duties.

Last Friday we celebrated our Patron, Caroline Chisholm with a College Mass in the Brother Ollie Pickett Recreation Centre. We were reminded that Chisholm Day is not only about food and fun, but also about loving our neighbour. This fundamental tenet of the Catholic faith was demonstrated not only by Caroline in her era through her charitable works, but also by the Chisholm Community through the considerable fundraising that occurred on Chisholm Day. Indeed, approximately $24,000 was raised for those in our global village who are less fortunate than ourselves, in particular the people of Pakistan who have been devastated by floods recently. An outstanding achievement once again confirming the generosity of staff and students who have collaborated to make this day a huge success! Let us continue to live the vision of Jesus and be inspired by Caroline’s vocation.

CHISHOLM DAY

A wonderful feature for Chisholm Day this year was the sight of five monsterballs rolling around the oval. Thanks to Leah and “Monsterballs Amusements and Hire” who sponsored these giant balls for us. When we contacted her to ask her for a quote, and mentioned that we were raising funds for the Pakistan floods, Leah very kindly donated 6 monster balls AND a staff member to assist. We raised an awesome amount of $1180 for the Pakistani Floods from this activity alone. The constant stream of students lining up and sounds of joy and laughter highlights the success and popularity of the monsterballs. We saw Mr Chua racing some Year 8’s and even saw Fr Richard taking part in the activity! Mr Chua, the students from Year 8O’Sullivan1 and indeed the College Community would like to acknowledge Leah and Sandi from “Monsterballs Amusements and Hire” for sponsoring us and helping us to fundraise the money. Their generosity has contributed not only to a great day for our Chisholm community but also to those who need our aid.

‘...is it worth returning Miss...???’ an honest question asked at our Year 8 PCG—when Joshua found $10 on the oval after school and handed it in. The answer to the question is ‘YES’ - what Joshua did was honest and living the values we strive for at Chisholm and in life. This money will be added to the collection for the Pakistan victims. THANK YOU JOSHUA!
--- Students in Years 7-10 are reminded that the end of Chisholm Care for this year is fast approaching – this being the end of Term 3! It is imperative that students finalise their hours/days of service and complete their Service Diary prior to submitting it to their Pastoral Care Advisors. As you are all aware, completion of Chisholm Care in each year level is one of the precursors to graduating from this College. As well it empowers students to be active citizens in our community, serving others just as Caroline Chisholm and Jesus did.

STUDY SKILLS TIP FOR SEPTEMBER  - FROM THE ELES STUDY SKILLS HANDBOOK

WHAT ARE STUDY SKILLS?
Study skills are known by lots of different terms: effective learning skills, learning to learn skills, meta-cognitive skills, and independent learning skills. Whatever these skills are called, they are the generic skills that help students work more effectively at home, manage their assignments and study efficiently for tests and exams.

Effective study skills are important because they enable a student to maximize their results, providing them with more choices about what they might do when they leave school. Effective study skills are important also once a student leaves school because they are actually lifelong learning skills. Regardless of whether a person stays in the same career for their whole life or changes career many times, they will continually have to be learning; using the study skills they have acquired at school.

Through developing good study skills, students are also developing personal management skills – how to make themselves do things when they don’t want to, how to ask for help, how to manage and organise their resources – all sorts of things that will contribute to a student’s future success. People with strong learning skills and self-management skills are more ready to face the challenges of succeeding in what can be a very competitive world.

Working through the units in the ELES Study Skills Handbook will help students develop and improve these essential skills. Students can access the ELES Study Skills Handbook on the Resource Centre web page at: Info Assist > Study Skills, clicking on the computer photo. Students can track their progress by clicking on the tracking system icon in the For Students tab and registering with a username and password. All the results of the quizzes and modules can then be viewed and saved.

Students may also wish to check out the new content added to the ELES Study Skills Handbook this month by clicking on the For Students tab and then clicking on the What’s New icon (parcelf).

LA NOSTIA GITA IN CITTA—OUR TOUR OF PERTH—

- Last week we had a lovely tour of the City for Year 10 Italian. During our tour, we visited many Italian shops. It was a unique occasion to go sight-seeing and I learnt many things about Italian culture. The food was also very delicious! It was a very fun and marvellous experience.
- During our tour, we did a tour of Northbridge—where there are many Italian shops—for example RE-Store, Torre and European foods. I love the RE-Store because it has lots of Italian foot—it all seemed delicious. For lunch I had the pasta and bought an Italian chocolate. At Torre, I saw many different meats, for example ham and chicken cut for the clients.
- During the tour we also went to the Pompeii museum. It was fantastic and interesting. I learnt about the culture, food and medicine in Pompeii. It was an amazing experience!!

Ebony Garlic—Year 10

WANTED— Any unwanted bike helmets for use at Year 9 camp. As this Year Group is an extraordinarily large group this year, we require a few more helmets to cater for this one off number of students.
